Hosted by Quinn Delaney & Wayne Jordan
Piedmont, CA

Quinn Delaney, Chair of the Board of Directors, Deepak Bhargava, President, & Dorian Warren, Vice President, request that you join a conversation on the progressive comeback.

*This is a time of great urgency. Approaching the pivotal 2018 elections, we are on the front lines—fighting to save the social safety net and keep immigrant families together. It's not enough.
CCC invites you into our work to develop the north star ideas and visionary leaders who will be the engine of change in the years ahead.*

Don't miss this opportunity to engage with the movement leaders fighting back with clarity and vision—not only in this moment but in all the fights to come.
